Criminal Record Check and Judicial Matters Check Initial Instructions and Information

What is a Criminal Record and Judicial Matters Check (CRJMC) and am I eligible to request one?

This check is intended for applicants who are involved as a volunteer, employee or in any situation where a basic CRJMC is requested (e.g. Border Crossing or Visa Application). This check is NOT intended for applicants who are seeking a volunteer and/or employment position with vulnerable persons.

The Criminal Record and Judicial Matters Check will include the following information as it exists on the date of the search:

- Criminal convictions from CPIC and/or local databases.
- Summary convictions for five (5) years.
- Findings of Guilt under the Youth Criminal Justice Act within the applicable disclosure period.
- Outstanding entries such as charges and warrants, judicial orders, Peace Bonds, Probation and Prohibition Orders.
- Absolute and Conditional Discharges for one (1) or three (3) years.

If you are seeking employment and/or volunteering in a position of authority or trust relative to vulnerable persons, please select a Vulnerable Sector (VS) Check application type, click here: Choose Different Police Record Check Type

Criminal Record Check and Judicial Matters Check Electronic Identity Verification Consent

You must provide electronic identity verification. Either this has not been completed previously, or your verification is up for renewal.

The Peel Regional Police Service uses "Equifax Kount" for electronic identity verification. "Equifax Kount" verifies your identity by comparing secured personal information provided by you against your credit records. It is NOT a credit check and does NOT affect credit scores or ratings. The City Police Service does not have access to this information nor is it kept on file.

"Equifax Kount" will ask you for your full name, Social Insurance Number, Address and your driver's license number and will use this information to process your identity check. It is important that you provide accurate information, or the electronic identity verification process will fail.

☒ I certify that I will provide only my information and that I am at least 18 years old.

☒ I authorize Equifax Canada Co. to access my credit to authenticate my identity and facilitate the processing of this application for this account only.

☒ I understand that I may be asked questions based on the information in my credit file as part of this process.
